Farms, Residences,

Timber Lots, Village Lots,

SAW MILLS, &c.,

Which, desiring to close up my business, are

FOR SALE

AT LESS THAN THEIR VALUE,

Easy Terms of Payment.

If, then, to live in vain is day by day To go among the lonely and the poor-CARROLL S. PAGE,

To be the link that joins a weary life HYDE PARK, VT.

To God; to be the comforter of strife; * CARELESS BUILDING.

The L. P. Jones Farm, 98 The plank was rotten, and by-and-bye The ship was launched on the waters The Foss Farm near School Away she sailed for eastern goals: House in Greenfield; 60 acres-very desirable place, except house of no The happy maiden, as good as gold, Lived and loved at the ocean's feet; Her heart grew young as the days grew old,

The Greenfield Farm, 60 acres, lately owned by R. S. Page; good fleet. above mentioned, and the two would, But never the ship that carried him ! ogether make a desirable farm.

The Mill Farm, lying south of Greenfield Mill above named; acres, fair, cheap buildings.

100 Acres of Timber Land known as the Bean lot, lying on the pond near H. S. Haskins' new pond; part of the land is flowed by Haskins' mill-pond.

100 Acres of Timber Land. known as the "Col. Whitney, Noyes lot," near Wilkins' Green River mill,

The Rowell Place, near Hyde Park village, 5 acres land and house; a good, cheap place for a laborer who tin pail.

The Tenement House, first a boarding house, for which there is a growing demand in this village.

Small. Desirable Village Lots in Hyde Park village. The demand for labor in Hyde Park is good, and any intelligent and thrifty laborer, who cap pay for the building lot, will be furnished with the lumber, lime, nails, glass, shingle, doors, sash and stone, with which to build a respectable building, and the party building, allowed to repay same in installments of $50 per aunum and interest. Land within onequarter mile of dwelling, will be sold in lots of 1, 2, 3 or 5 acres to suit pur-chaser, at low prices and on liberal terms

ARE YOU

Going to Purchase

H. J. LILLEY,

Hyde Park,

Has on hand a good assortment of Pleasure and Business Wagons.

His stock consists of

Open Buggies,

Covered Buggies,

Concord Wagons, &C., &C., &C., of various manufactures, all

At Reasonable Prices

for cash or on time,

He also keeps on hand a good assortment of One and Two Horse

The wagons are all warranted, and a written guarantee given to the buyer.

The Lumber Wagons are Lilley's own make, while the Buggies are from the best manufactories.

HARNESSES.

sie effers the best Driving Harness fo the money that can be bought in the State.

NEWS AND CITIZEN

VOL. XII. NO. 31.

MORRISVILLE AND HYDE PARK, VERMONT, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1884.

TERMS $1.50.

THE LYNCHINGS IN MONTANA.

lany of the Victims Believed to be Fugitive from the Cour d. Alene Mines.

A dispatch from Eagle City, Idaho,

One of the owners of mining property

The striking miners who were ar and have been in jail at Washington

Pa., since, had a hearing. Both sides were represented by council, and a large amount of testimony was taken. Judge

Hart decided to hold the prisoners for trial, but reduced their bail to $200.

Eighteen furnished this amount, and the balance went back to jail. Three of the women who have been intercepting the non-unionists with tin pans were also arrested on the charge of conspiraoffence for which they had been arrested with ten-fold vigor. One of the women, over sixty years old, and with her gray hairt streaming down her back, made appassioned address to the non-said: "My dear husband is now lan-bank and load the coal which he has

The Young Lady's Club.

"it's the C. C. Club. We are the 'Cheer

"I guess you mean the C. W. Club.

"No, I don't," insisted Christine,

"The other girls told me it was the C.

THE SISTER.

She never knew that music soft and sweet The patter of a little baby's feet; She never knew the world of joy and bliss That lingers in a husband's tender kiss. She never knew the heartache and the pa Of living loving, and that loving vain; She never knew the sorrow and the woe Of losing light from eyes whose radiant glow Was all her sun!

She lives in vain, you say? A ray of sunlight to each darkened door; To soothe with gentle words and gentle tone Wretches who sinned and sinned to suffer

To be the soothing balm for every pain-Then that grand woman truly lives in vain'

A careless builder, high and dry, Nailed a plank to a broad ship's side; But the cargo she carried was human souls.

And she counted the masts of each nearing Brave ships waxed tall on the gray sky's rin

STELLA C. AIRENS.

His Little Rustic BY ELLA WHEELER

The situation was romantic. He was leaning over a rail fence, wiping his warm brow with a somewhat soiled but very handsome handkerchief. when he discovered her.

She was kneeling in the grass a little way off, hunting for wild strawberries. which she dropped into a partially filled Her sun-bonnet had fallen back, and now revealed a very flush face and tumbled mass of brown hair.

He thought her profile very pretty, her print sleeve, shapely and white. He growing curious concerning the color

Just at this moment a whirr of wings caused him to turn his eyes in another direction, and he saw a covey of wild prairie hens just settling upon an angle of the fence in near range. He lifted his gun quickly to his shoulder, took aim and fired.

The birds all flew away unharmed But the girl in the grass gave a little shrick, and sprang up so hastily that she tipped her pail of berries over, and they all disappeared in the long, tan-"Ob, how provoking!" she cried, in a tone of real vexation, as she looked down at her empty pail,

"Allow me to help you pick them up," said our hero, gallantly, as he sprang over the fence with an easy bound, and bent to his task as lightly as if he had always picked berries from tangled grass for a livelihood, instead of attending to the foreign business of one of the largest commercial houses in the world. He picked away in silence for fully five minutes without looking up. It was now the young lady's opportunity for inspection. She saw a medium sized, strongly built figure. clothed in a hunting snit, evidently new; a head of closely cropped hair, until evening. season? If so, now is your time. suspiciously near baldness upon the crown; a peculiarly pallid complexion, a very handsome mustache, well waxed and glossy, and, as he lifted them, just then, two very liquid and languid blue

'Yes, they are brown " he said, men of foreign lands and people. tally, as he met her glance. Aloud: "I think your pail is quite as full as it was before, Mademoiselle. I shall take pleasure in assisting you to completely fill it if you will allow."

And his smile and glance and the perfect modulation of his voice was as delightful to Lisle Ashley as it had been to a score-nay, to a hundred-women before her.

"I—I thank you," she stammered "but I have enough for tea now, and it is late, and I must go." "But you have not enough for tea if I take tea with you," said our hero, with the irresistible boldness, coupled with a respectful demeanor, which was one of Richard Westbrook's more taking qualities with the ladies.

If a man's manner, glance and tone are only respectful and deferential. nothing pleases a woman more than a certain amount of boldness in his words or two until October. They read and her look of surprise, "I am lost," I veritable Eden to Richard, He was left a party of friends this forenoon, and | deeply in love with the girl's innocence, wandered through the woods in search sweetness and unaffected good sense, of game until I am completely bewil-You are the first human being I have verish. I have no ides how far I am from Benton station, where I was to

"Oh," said Lisle, looking very sympathetic indeed, "you are to be pitied. You are five miles from Benton station. and you must be hungry, I know. Well. now, you may go home with me-it sorbed in his business pursuits. ired man is going to Benton Falls this evening. You can ride with him."

"But my train goes at 7." him with the cows so he can get off.

hands and wrists. when occasion requires. I would not very glad to see him, but claimed that whom the teacher finds inattentive. be a thoroughly genuine country girl if the pleasure was entirely unexpected. I could not. Now, here is a fence to She explained that she was visiting her help me over?" leaped the fence," said Richard, as he sought out Mrs. Stoughton, Lisle's aunt, be informed if a flush royal couldn't get sprang lightly over and gave her his and expressed his surprise and delight "They can do it, but they do not al- whose acquaintance he explained.

Uncle William's house-that red one summer in the country with her uncle over yonder. And the white cloth is and aunt-two good old souls, whom hanging out of the attic window to tell she loves as dearly as her own father the men in the hayfield that supper will and mother. She is the leader of her be ready as soon as they can get down circle in Gotham, and is immensely this morning.

count of the fish and game in neighborberries." "What a charming, fresh, unspoiled mother. child of nature she is!" thought Richard, as she disappeared. "Sweet eyes a bachelor. and mouth and a pretty figure, and so simple and unaffected! Ah! that is what attracts a man after he is worn out with the artifices of the world and disgusted with the shams of society. What an ideal life one could lead here with din and turmoil and strife of the pleased. to wash your face and hands, perhaps. You may step into auntie's room at the left here.' How pretty and restful and homelike wished she would look up, as he was it'll accommodate you any; and the asking such questions. men'll be here in a few minutes, so it'll of her eyes. He felt sure they were be pleasanter for you to have your tea before they come."

And Richard sat down to a tete-a-tete tea with Lisle, in her print gown and with her slightly sunburned face, guiltless of powder, and enjoyed it more than any stately dinner which he ever attended, where ladies lured him with beautiful faces and sumptuous costumes outside it until a friend rushed out.

and glittering jewels. Then in came Uncle William with his ond voice and his burly frame to break the spell, and half a dozen red-faced and perspiring farm hands with him.

"Storm coming up from the west, he said, "Guess my hay'll eatch it; but I've only a half-day's mowing down. All the rest up in snug stack at noon. Neighbor Brown has three acres lying yet. I'm lucky for once. Whew! there comes the thunder! A regular night of it, I guess we'll have." So it proved, Joel could not go "town," as the little station five miles distant was designated, and the night set in storming fuiously.

Richard, not at all reluctantly, ac until morning. A train went to Lake Resort at 6, but as at that hour it still rained, he turned over upon his comfortable couch and concluded to wait

He was in no haste to leave Lisle Ashey's sweet presence. He idled away the day in a delicious ashion. Lisle sat over a great basket

"How well she listens. Few people at school in a distant city. When he went away that evening he asked her if he might send her som: nice books to read.

"I have stacks of them," he said, 'which it seems selfish in me to keep in trunks now I have read them. You might as well enjoy them, and I would feel then that I was doing something toward a return for all your kindness." So he sent the books, and a note with them, of course; and of course Lisle replied, and letters followed for several weeks. And then he ran down to Benton Station to pass Sunday at "Uncle William's" farm. After that he came down every week talked, and walked and drove together, "You see," he continued, in answer to an l it was all Heaven to Liste and a

He was fascinated with the repose and panion if he could remain here. But the world, his business duties to share that world with him.

He went back to Albany in October elimb. Will you please go first and then sunt, the hostess, and would spend the Within half an hour afterward no fewer greater part of the winter in Albany. than forty-nine anxious inquirers sent "I thought country girls always Richard did not detain her long. He at meeting her niece, the manner of ways display their agility on every ocea- "Oh, yes. She has fooled you as she army he is said to be cashiered. When a sion," Lisle retorted, as she stepped to has others. Her parents reside in New cashier is dismissed from a bank he is the ground at his side, "There is York city. She preferred spending the generally officered, wealthy in her own right, having been "How delightfully primitive life is out left a cool two millions by an uncle who here!" mused Richard. "I feel as if I amassed his fortune in the coffee trade. home is in Albany, New York. I was and see us often while she is here."

company to tea and help her pick the told. Lisle Ashley married her Lieutenant, and is to-day a happy wife and

Richard Westbrook, however, remains

O'Connell's Strategy.

Daniel O'Connell knew his country-from the gallows,

open window; how motherly Aunt Ruth appeared in her big apron as she greeted him with cordial simplicity, touched him to save the man, if possible.

The case seemed hopeless; but O'Conled lars. They dug down in the hill-side and found a quartz lode. Not long afterward a nugget, worth ninety-seven dollisten to us. When he first went to live gettin' off to town about 6, he says, if peremptorily ordered him to desist from gave out, he and his companions had advised him to go away before it was Then we pull the legs apart until his him or not. This was just what O'Connell had their ravine, Many prospectors have been manceuvring for. With great tried to dream out a fortune since then. warmth of manner he exclaimed:

"As you, my Lord, refuse me permission to defend my client, I leave his fate in your hands; his blood be on your head if he is condemned!" Leaving the court-room, with apparent indignation, he strode up and down shouting, "He's acquitted! he's acquit-The strategy was successful in duping their favorite advocate had been unjustly prevented from defending his client, and so they acquitted him.

The Cleveland Crank. cepted the cordial invitation to remain field," called the name "T. M. Alexing the Treasury; she needed work of cefved a couple of days ago from Jay child every time it came into the tent. put: "Is that your handwriting?" The head of the Treasury, and she had come prisoner carefully adjusted his glasses to ask him to help her. and examined the card and answered: "No, sir." "You were in Richmond in asked the Secretary. The girl men-March, 1883?" "That's my business." tioned some menial work. It was a low of mending, while he read aloud or talked to her in his rich, thrilling voice of mending antecedents received negative answers, trolled by the Civil Service. It may daughter Victoria a few words might no answer at all, or a scornful wave of have been scrubbing or something of his hand. The court inquired: "Do that nature. I do not remember what, possess that accomplishment, too," he you want to make any statement?" to but Mr. Folger replied that he did not thought; and he found she had read a which was replied: "I don't know much about that part of the tastes, and if there are any business great deal, and had been several years I have any statement to make. I want Treasury, and that she should go into qualities in him they will soon develop something to eat, I have been without the chief clerk's office where, if there food for three days." This referred to was anything of the kind she wanted, the fact that the prisoner during his in- the chief clerk would probably give it to carceration has absolutely refused to her. As he said this he pointed to the touch bread and water, the only food door opposite. Then as he noticed allowed him. The subsequent questions from her eyes, now half filled with tears, propounded by the court were no more that her heart was sinking, he consuccessful than those recited. A sen- tinued, 'Perhaps I had better go in tence of $200 and costs and twenty-eight with you,' and he took her into Mr. days in the workhouse for earrying concealed weapons was imposed, and the court explained the two day's abatement from the usual number, by confessing directing the chief clerk to give her that he had made a mistake in commit-ting the man for contempt in refusing to the room. A few days after this I saw criminate himself. After leaving the court-room the mysterious prisonersaid "They can send me to the workhouse, but I'll be hanged if they can make me work," Young James Garfield was an observer of the Police Court hearing. The Hearing of School Children, The medical journals indorse, without dered. They have the lunch basket, calm of this quiet retreat, so unlike the exception, the suggestion made by Dr. restless rush of his whole life. He felt Well, in the Archives of Otology, based seen in hours, and I have dined on a few as if he could live and die a happy and on his examination of the ears and hearberries. I must have supper soon or contented man with Lisle his own com- ing of nearly 6,000 school children, namely, that in every case of inattention the child should have its ears examined. join my friends at 7 o'clock. And now lay elsewhere-in a world of commerce | so convinced is he of the fact that chiland fashion-and he did not ask Lisle dren who are simply hard of hearing are often misjudged and considered inattentive. Indeed, such an examination, he without asking her that one momen- thinks, would be desirable once or twice tous question, and soon became ab- a year for every child, the test being made in the school-room itself if there is just half a mile from here. Aunt One evening in early December, Rich- be no other room convenient; that is, Ruth will have supper ready, I know, and received an invitation to attend a the teacher could place the pupil in one and you will be welcome. And the reception at the home of Mrs. Stough- corner of the room, then retire to the group of these blackamoors made a pict- until late at night. ton, the leader in his social circle. He other himself, and test each ear sepwent, somewhat reluctantly. After a arately by whispering-causing the waltz or two with some of his lady words and sentences used to be repeated "Well, there is another at 9. And friends, he sought a sofa and watched by the pupil, and thus easily find out er woman wore a silver pin stick-Joel may go early enough to get up the merry throng. Soon his eyes caught which of them are hard of hearing. ing out through her under lip, another LUMBER WAGONS, there for the 7 o'clock train. I will help sight of a figure that caused him to This, it is believed, would have the start from his seat and gaze intently on further advantage of calling the atten-Richard glanced down at the slender the lovely form which floated across the tion of parents to the condition of their farther end of the ball-room. It was children, and inducing them to act a great plug of wood over an inch "You milk cows? Impossible!" he she-his rustic-arrayed in the most accordingly, or, what would be still across. These lip ornaments are worn lovely costume, radiant with jewels and better, a surgeon should have the health "Oh, I do not make a business of it," flushed with excitement. He sought her of the schools in charge, including the Lisle answered calmly; "but I can do it after the dance. She was apparently examination of the ears of every pupil

A MAN named Hoyle registered his up their cards to his room begging to away with four aces.

WHEN an officer is dismissed from the studies.

THE HERO OF DREAM GULCH. STORY OF THE NEW DAROTA MINING

In the Cœur d'Alene region, says a writer in the Century for October, the miners had to work through an enormous amount of surface deposit. Those who was in another world from the one I left | She is a woman who does not believe in got down, however, found free gold in doing exactly as other woman do. She flakes and chunks. The largest nugget "You are from Lake Resort, I sup- has met her fate, however, and is to be discovered was worth three hundred and married to Lieutenant Topgallant, just twenty dollars. That was found in "Yes. I have been there a week; my after the holidays. But you must come Dream Gulch. To this gulch attaches a romantic story. One night in August, and loafers who hung about the place Richard went away early. He felt 1883, a man named Davis, who lived in where they stopped in Yonkers, left the ing localities. But I came out here this that he had indeed lost a treasure, and Farmington, in the Palouse Country, place and came to New York city. They morning, and have tramped all day and his dreams that night were troubled and had been thinking of going to the went to the home of step-father-in-law with visitations of what might have Cour d'Alene region, had a dream. In Huelskamp's brother, Henry Huel-"You tried, though," said Lisle, mis- been. It would be pleasant to be able his dream he traveled up a heavily tim- skamp, the piano-maker, on the top "You tried, though," said Lisle, mischievously. "But here we are now;
please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the

please take a seat on the veranda in the please take a seat on the veranda in the chisel. The dense forest was unlike in search of a roof, which they found in anything he had ever seen before, Next night the same dream came again.

He chipped off more gold until he was tired, and awoke. The third night he men through and through. When he was once more in the ravine, loading He had to defend a prisoner charged ledge to be seen. Davis and his com-charming the table appeared to his bungry, eyes, with the healthful country fare!

"You had better sit right down, you "You had better si

but none have had Davis's luck. Sec. Folger and the Poor Girl.

Many stories are told here of the late Secretary Folger's kindness while he go home. Her father will either have partment. Said a leading official: "Mr. with a home or she will go crazy. She reporter. Folger was the most tender-hearted Secretary we have ever had. He could never disregard an appeal of distress, and do something. It would break her they grow old, especially the bulls. have been guilty of some depredations, and there are numbers of poor women heart. She is no wife for Ernest and he We are more or less in danger all the because they were without supplies, and the jury. They honestly believed that in the department who owe their situa- no husband for her. I am afraid that time, but we become attached to them they had to help themselves or starve. tions to him. I remember being in his either Victoria or Ernest will be un- as a man will to a horse. They all have office one day when there were perhaps | happy." a dozan men present to present the present of the present of the here, seems almost without end.

girl entered with a modest air and took in the day, but was "not in" to all who some years ago developed a great liking Thousands lost all their money and a seat upon the sofa. She must have called at his office with reference to his for a camel. Whenever the latter would sat there for nearly an hour, during domestic troubles. It was reported in lay down Hebe would stand over him, after experiencing hardships of incredi-"Call the 'Crank," was the order up- which a continuous throng of visitors Yonkers, however, that he came down on which "John Doe," the eccentric came and went, each having his little for the purpose of taking extraordinary him, and express her love in shrill trumvisitant of the Garfield residence, was talk with the Secretary, and then going steps in securing the return of his petings of delight. ushered to a place in the prisoner's row away. At last Judge Folger noticed her, daughter. It was rumored even that he in the Police Court, Cleveland, Ohio. and going over to her said in the kind- anticipated having Victoria apprehended Assistant-Prosecutor McNamee, with est manner possible, 'My daughter, is as an escaped lunatic, but the police several postal cards in his hand bearing there anything I can do for you?' The strenuously deny the report. the address of "Mrs. James A. Gar- girl replied that she wanted a position The letter which Mr. Morosini refield," called the name "T. M. Alexing the Treasury; she needed work of ceived a couple of days ago from our and was almost frantic if the boy didn't they are certain to perish before prisoner was silent. "Is that your knew such positions were to be had, settlement of the unpleasantness, is come up and fondle his trunk." name?" "No, sir." Then one of the but she did not know how to apply for couched about as follows: postals was submitted and the query was them. She had heard that it was at the

"But, daughter, what can you do?" Webster's room. But Mr. Webster, the chief clerk, was absent. Secretary Folger, however, gave the girl a seat, this girl among the employees of the Treasury Department,"

Alaska Belles. At Killisnoo, writes a correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, bisekened faces were anost the rule, and every native woman, had her face coated with a mixture of seal oil and soot. ing their pretty baskets of the fine inside bark and roots of the cedar. One younghad a bone labrette, or lip ring, the third, a wrinkled old crone, wore by nearly all the women of the island tribes, and are a mark of age as certain as a family record. The big wooden plugs that they gut in in their sere and yellow days push the lip out and give a hideous look to the wrinkled, blackened old crones who wear them. Nose-rings and ear-rings, silver rings on their fingers and bracelets on their wrists complete their full-dress array, and if they only wore something more barbaric than shawls and calico dresses, they would be far more interesting as savage waterfall-he is catarrh-racked.

HAS SHE BEEN FORGIVEN? marks at me, such as: 'Ah, that's her.' VICTORIA RETURNS HOME DURING THE ABSENCE OF HER FATHER.

Good Reasons for Belleving that a Reconciliation Has Taken Pince-Jay Gould's Sensible Letter to the Augry Father. [From the N. Y. World.] Schelling and his bride, unable longer to tolerate the annoyance to which they have been subjected by scandal-mongers the neighborhood of Sixth avenue and Fourteenth street. "We are poor," said Mrs. Henry Huelskamp to a reporter, "and cannot pounds of hay, 21 bushels of oats, 70 are a good many of these back-door callafford to have more rooms than just pounds of Graham bread, a bushel of ers here now. They are afraid to start ing eight miles and finding themselves stood before twelve of them, shut up in four mules with gold. The treble dream enough for our use. Poor girl! I would carrots or turnips and drinking three out for the settlements, for they have no apparently no nearer to the range, they a jury-box, they usually gave him their made such an impression on his mind like to have given hea a bed. She barrels of water each day," said the means, and they have heard so many came to the Denver irrigation ditch, such a companion as that, far from all heads and hearts to do with as he that he persuaded two friends to go with looked so sick and worn out. Why, her trainer of Jumbo to a reporter. "He reports of the hangings that they think him to the Cour d'Alenes. After pros- face was as pale as a sheet and she does that as regular as clockwork, in they could not escape. He was a masterly actor. He played pecting for several days he found a trembled terribly. She had only a thin two installments, and begs the rest of Under the circumstances the miners with each wild passion of their Irish ravine that corresponded to the one seen dress on and her trembling was due to the time from every one who comes here have not the heart to drive any you please. I suppose you would like nature, and it answered as he willed. If in his dream. Passing up it he found cold and excitement. She looks awful near him. He never goes off his feet, more of them away, but something will he became mad, there was method in it all familiar ground. He recognized queer and if her father does not settle not even when he sleeps, and he never have to be done before winter sets in. his madness. An anecdote illustrates the trees, the underbrush, the pools of how his feigned anger once saved a man water. The ravine forked just where he maniac. She cannot stand it more than cept once, when something had anexpected it would, but there was no a week or two longer. She is sick now gered him. That was in winter quarand ought to go to bed. But it was all ters at Bridgeport, but I soon got him are here it amounts to a severe tax to the rooms were; how dreamily the sound of the "with a crime whose penalty was death. He nad to defend a prisoner charged be compelled to feed many of them. An panions washed a pan of dirt, and found be compelled to feed many of them. An of the "mowers" came in through the The case seemed hopeless; but O'Concolor. A second pan yielded three dolhim with cordial simplicity, touched with a slight awe of his city origin; how charming the table appeared to his hun-

> away, because she was wild for him." of poor folks and poor surroundings and | baved," work-cook, wash and iron? I would

"I sympathize with you in your re cent trouble, and as a friend and adviser I trust you will accept this in the spirit of good will and not consider it unnecessarily obtrusive. Instead of grieving over what cannot now be remedied, it many capital anecdotes about him. One has been recorded that this or that gang might be well to take the whole matter was a scene in court soon after Davis had been exterminated. No doubt now have some salutary effect upon her. However, I would suggest that you had been indicted for highway robbery. to make their way back to the States. start the young man (Huelskamp) in Lindsay had pleaded guilty, in the hope some light business congenial to his that the Court would give him the counted for. themselves. Such a step might be the means of rendering the young couple happy and lessen the burden of your From the train arriving at Mount St. Vincent, the station below Yonkers, at 1.30 p. m. on Tuesday, Schelling and his crime. He had robbed a helpless his bride alighted. Hand in hand they climbed the steep hill from the railway and passed through the convent grounds. At the Old Forest House, which is used for the reception and convenience of the Judge closed his phillippic with the church dignitaries, Ernest stopped, while Victoria went on to her father's seven years in the Illinois Legislature !" house. On the piazza sat Julia and her brother Attilio, both of whom kissed and embraced Victoria. All went into the house, Victoria going to her mother's vonr Honor, as the friend of the Court, room at once.

from the house with her face wreathed in smiles. She was accompanied by both her brothers and her sister Julia and also by Father McNamee, the parish It gives them a wild, strange look, and taken by Mrs. Schelling in coming to they giggle in the silliest way when one the house. At the Forest House they points to them. The old theories that were joined by Ernest and the little they were it as a sign of mourning, be- party went to the railway station, keepcause they were angry or rejoiced, or ing up an animated and apparently the defendant and his counsel.—Ben. penitent, are exploded now, and it is amicable conversation all the way. On known that it is simply a protection the arrival of the train at 3.15 o'clock. against the gnats and mosquitoes on the bride again kissed her brothers and land, and to keep their faces from burn- sister and a general interchange of ing when out in their canoes. It is an excellent cosmetic for the women, keeping their complexion soft and smooth, their brother-in-law by the hand, as did and when they wash it off on grand oc- also Father McNamee, and then the

ciliation, both Julia and Attilio Morosini surmised, although he could give no nade. They have been advised that by man, gave him a liberal allowance of the postively deny that one has taken place, reason for it, that the earth would at this substitution they can escape arrest "If Victoria returns now," said Julia, one time become perfectly dry. Since or twenty years from now she will be then it has been found that Newton was received the same as if nothing had hap- correct. As the earth keeps cooling it pened." It was noticeable, however, will become porous, and great cavities that the tone of both was much more will be formed in the interior which will Mrs. Popular's one morning. "I belong when they can get soda water like that." tender when speaking of Ernest, nor did take in the water. It is estimated that to a club," she announced, delightedly they utter a word derogatory to him. In this process is now in progress so far fact, Julia declared that she thought that the water diminishes at the rate of ful Workers." Victoria did perfectly right in what she the thickness of a sheet of writing paper did. "She was old enough," she said. a year. At this rate in 9,000,000 years then," said Mrs. Popular, kindly. "to know what she was doing." Attilio the water will have sunk a mile, and in declared that all the talk about using | 15.000,000 years every trace of water | physical force against Schelling, either will have disappeared from the face of C. Club, and I'm sure it is." by him or his brother, is nonsense, and the globe. that they had no hard feelings toward him. The absence of Morosini from home all day until 6 o'clock in the even- man wrote of the new railroads: "The want you to do something about the itself would be a large sum to pay for the ing might throw some doubt on the idea rich and poor, the educated and the ig- house, or help wipe the dishes some sport of a couple of months, but it is of a reconciliation, as it could not be noract, the polite and the vulgar, all morning, you'll go right to work as only a portion of the cost which is incibrought about without his co-operation. herd together in this modern improved cheerfully as you can,"

'Aint she a daisy,' 'Look at her bangs,' 'There comes the coachman.' I shall be glad when this is all over."

It has been learned that there was quite a scene in the mansion Sunday says:-The men who are being lynched morning when the prodigal girl returnep as cattle thieves in this and Montana home. She was upbraided and scolded in the harshest terms. Then, amid her Territories are for the most part fugitears, she produced the letter written tives from the Cœur d'Alene mines. by her father which caused her to return, and said: "I did not return for this; I swindle occurred hundreds of desperate the county, but after a conversation did not come back for money or for your fellows scattered in all directions. They with an Ohio citizen the case is more support. You wrote me to come home were without money, and they were satisfactory. The $13 was all the poor and all would be forgiven, and thus you compelled to steal or starve. From acfellow could get hold of. It was a larger keep your word. I shall go again and counts received here it is thought great sum than had ever been in his charge never return," but the thought of her injustice has been done to many of before. The golden opportunity had sick mother changed her mind, came to a place where the stream forked, the unfortunate and half-frantic bride of came to a place where the stream forked, and there he found a ledge, from which he chipped pure gold with a hammer and the chipped pure gold with a hammer and significant the darkness of night officers. In that direction the chipped pure gold with a hammer and significant the darkness of night officers. In that direction the chipped pure gold with a hammer and significant the darkness of night officers. energetic efforts in that direction. tion demanded it, but in the country

"But how can you handle such a them a safe conduct to the railroad and colossus?" asked the reporter, glancing get them out of harm's way. It has taken forty-two thousand dollars out of too late. At last he told me he could Majesty's belly touches the ground. In not go away now unless he took her that position we throw him, and leave here who has just returned from a trip him fastened down until he begins to down the Northern Pacific road in Mon "Don't you think they are happy?" beg off. After that he is treated with "It is queer happiness. She seems kindness until another dose of pulley beto go wild over him now. When she comes necessary. But, as I say, Jumbo for the most part downright murders. has got over this romance she will tire is a very pleasant fellow and well-be- A few notorious horse thieves have been

"I presume the elephants soon learn eagerness for excitement, and taking adwas at the head of the Treasury De- to make up with him and provide them to know their keepers," suggested the vantage of the license given them, have killed many men who were simply "That they do, but not every ele- trying to get back to civilization without like to see her come into my kitchen phant is kind. They grow wicked as a special hobby or liking. For instance. Mr. Morasini came to the city carly Hobe, one of the members of the hereif put her trunk around his neck, blow on ble severity, while hundreds, not even through the wilds of Montana by man-"Gypsy, another of the herd, took to slayers, like so many wild beasts. It is children, and when Frank Melville, the known that forty or fifty of these bareback rider, traveled with us, Gypsy showed a remarkable fondness for his little son. The animal recognized the Judge David Davis, who for eight years rode the same judicial circuit in tended that the cowboys were too busy Illinois with Abraham Lincoln, related to make any report, and by hearsay it was appointed Judge, when Lincoln had exists that the majority of these victims defended a fellow named Lindsay, who lightest sentence imposed by law. The crime, however, had no lenient features, and the character of its perpetrator was very bad. At the close of the term Lindsay was arraigned for sentence. The Judge alluded to the youth of the prisoner, and dwelt upon the enormity of man of his hard-earned wages, and committed a crime that the law characterized as akin to murder. Gathering wrath and indignation as he proceeded, words: "Lindsay, I sentence you to He arose with a quaint gleam of humor cy. One was also charged with assault on his face, and said: "May it please reinforced by 200 others repeated the allow me to suggest that the Constitution does not permit cruel and unusual punishment. Your Honor has sent this man to the Legislature when he ough) to go to the Penitentiary." "The difference is so slight that the priest, all of whom retraced the steps Court has no hesitation in adopting the suggestion of its learned and experienced adviser," the Judge responded. There- for doing no harm to any one. My any hanging up on the back of the upon he imposed the full sentence of heart aches for him, when I think of hourse, so I thought I would ask for the law, and everybody laughed except the suffering he has to endure. God something to eat. Yes, I remember the Perley Poore. A Great Drought.

Richard A. Proctor says that the age mined. My husband fought in the of the earth is placed by some at 500,- Union army to liberate the slaves, 000,000 years, and still others of later Would to God he were also emancitime, among them the Duke of Argyle, pated." This little speech affected casions their faces are as creamy white as young couple came back to the city. place it at 10,000,000 years. None place every one who heard it. Several of the the fairest of their Japanese sisters. A Mrs. Noden remained at the mausion it lower than 10,000,000, knowing what non-unionists promised to join the processes have been gone through. The strikers. The women will use mouth earth must have become old. Newton organs instead of tin pans in their sere. mistaken clerk, not knowing the gentle-

Julia said that her mother is consider- ment in traveling, * * * and all this for ably improved, "I am greatly annoyed," the sake of doing very uncomfortably in A MAN with a cold in his head is like a she added, "by roughs and men passing two days what would be done delightby, who hurl a. sorts of indecent re- ully in or eight ten days."

Woodpile, Etc. THEY LOVED.

"My young man is a contractor," she said to a group of envious young lady friends, "A contractor?" asked half a dozen companions. "Yes, a contractor, He has contracted the habit of tobaccousing, beer-drinking and gambling, besides a long list of small debts." "He is almost as smart as one of my admirers," chimed in another young lady; "he is an undertaker," "An undertaker?" came the chorus from the company. "Yes, he undertakes to make me believe that he is very handsome and smart. He undertakes to make $50 a month carry him through where $100 could not pay out, and undertakes to imitate sensible people at times, but gives himself away."-Lincoln Union.

At first glance it seems odd that a When the great break up of the gold should skip out with $13 belonging to them, for they were not all hardened come, and it was then or never. Ohio It was owing to the effort of Capt, offenders, though they have been treated county treasurers are never short less out of this camp because self-preserva- cials, - Wall Street News. A couple of Englishmen once started where they now have scattered they "He knows nothing besides eating 700 might have obtained assistance. There from Denver for the foot-hills, judging them to be four miles off. After walk-

One of them stopped on the bank and began to strip, his companion exclaim-

"Why, what are you going to do?" "I am going to swim the river."

yard or so across !" "How do I know it isn't a quarter of mile? We've been fooled enough already, and I'm not going to risk a wetting; you can jump if you like,"

Nickleby met Chuzzlewit and said:

tana, reports that the lynchings which ball last night." have taken place in that Territory are "Yes," responded Chuzzlewit, "and my wife looks that way yet."- Texas

Siftings. A SPECIMEN OF FUN. The other day a little cherub of but a very few summers, sat at the window of her residence on East Fourth street,

"Yes, my darling." The little one looked again and gigmuch valuable time, and only got away gled, and with a merry twinkle in her long. In all the accounts of the wholesale lynchings that have taken I yearn to know of Hie-chie-ching; place the names of very few of the victims have been given. It has been pre-

> Paul Herald. THE CHINESE PUZZLE. Oh, bring me a map of the seat of war !

PROBABLY CORRECT.

elderly lady. "Here, sir, keep off," said an old genleman at her side, shoving him back, or I'll teach you a little politeness."

Then he wondered why the girls all tittered, -Herald.

whither. - Boston Post. It is reported that a day or two ago Mr. St. John went into a Kansas drug

His left eye accidentally twitched as the clerk gazed at him inquiringly. The usual flavor demanded on such occasions, and the glass was drained to the dregs. "My goodness gracious me!" said the candidate, smacking his lips, "I Little Christine came dancing into don't see how men can drink liquor their bunting. It has been roughly estimated that every stag which falls in a deer forest in England or Scotland costs the lessee the sum of £50 ($250), and dental to what has been called the pas-

THE HUMOROUS PAPERS. WHAT WE FIND IN THEM TO SMILE OVER THIS WEEK. The Chinese Puzzie-The Girls Thtered-A Im.ky Number-What Puzzied Him-Two Different Kinds-The Tramp and

about four feet wide.

"Why, man, it's a ditch, and only effort will be made after a while to give Bob Nickleby married a wealthy old maid for her money. She paints herself up and makes quite a handsome appearno money, is likely to be hanged as a sance at a distance, at balls and parties, Austin avenue, and Mrs. Nickleby was painted like a doll. Next morning "Our wives looked beautiful at the dispatched, but the cowboys in their when a genuine dude walked wearily by. money. No one denies that they may His legs were phantom like, his shoes long and pointed, his dress foppish, he wore a single eyeglass and carried a diminutive rattan cane. As he stared The misery caused by the senseless about idiotically the little one said: gold craze, of which this town was the (Maroma did Dol make 'at man 2"

> "Mamma, Dod likes to have fun des' as much as anybody, don't He."-St.

wretches have been driven across the line in the Canadian northwest, where unless they come in contact Just show me Ke-lung and Sinen-choo;

so, bring me a map of the seat of war were broken-down adventurers seeking There was a goodly number of ladies at Twenty-third street and Sixth aveone waiting for an elevated railway train when a specimen of the New York young "gent" of the day came pushing through the crowd, rudely jostling an

> "You will, eh?" came from Young America, throwing a withering glance at the elderly party. "I'd have you understand, sir, that there's not a man in this town can teach me politeness,"

He was a tramp, and when he had earefully scanned the back-yard for the expected woodpile and found none, he quietly slid around, and, knocking at the front door, began his story of misfortune and his inability to get work. "Yes," said the farmer, who was of a classic turn, "but 'labor conquers all things': you remember the old saw, unionists. Among other things she don't you?" "Yes, indeed I do," said the wayfarer, as tears started to his eyes, "and the remembrance is indeed painguishing in prison at Washington, at the instigation of the working miners, ful, but as I came along I didn't see old saw, and the woodpile, too, but have knows how hard it is for me to control no use for them; good day," And he my temper when I see a non-unionist vanished into the whereness of the walk into my husband's room in the store and called for a glass of soda

-Graphic.

therefore a property which yields fifty "The 'Cheerful Workers.'" ruminated Mrs. Popular; "I suppose that means, of these monarchs of the glen is expect-RAILROADS.—Fifty years ago a Boston my dear, that if your mamma should ed to let for £2,500 per annum. That of time of princes. The total expenditure "Oh, no," said little Christine, quite aghast; "it isn't that kind of a club!" for the season will, in all probability, in The most fashionable ladies now wear scarce- numerous instances amount to a total Paving Dearly for It. English sportsmen pay dearly for